Prepositions

What is a preposition?

A preposition is a word used to link nouns, pronouns or phrases to other words within a sentence.

They act to connect the people, objects, time and locations of a sentence.

Prepositions are usually short words, and they are normally placed directly in front of nouns.

Examples of Prepositions

- I prefer to read in the library.
- He climbed up the ladder to get onto the roof.
- Please sign your name on the dotted line.
- Go down the stairs and through the door.
- He swam across the pool.
- Take your brother with you.
